Auricular Acupuncture

10/3/10 LotusWEBINAR Rebroadcast*

Approval for 8 CEUs/PDAs by CA, IL, FL, TX Acupuncture Boards & NCCAOM

*Available for "Watch It Free" package

Li-Chun Huang is the founder and current dean of Auricular Medicine International Research and Training Center. Her expertise in the field arises from her continuous research, and immense clinical and instructional experience. Dr. Huang has conducted over 150 seminars in auricular therapy worldwide, including the International Acupuncture and Moxibustion Class sponsored by the World Health Organization (W.H.O.). Dr. Huang's years of training and devotion to research have enabled her to publish numerous texts on auricular acupuncture, including Handbook of Auricular Treatment Formulae and Prescriptions, Auricular Medicine, and others.

Lotus CEU Seminar Comments

"I just wanted you all to know how much I appreciate the work you do. I've been with you for 3 years or so, and am grateful that you exist. The work you are doing is so important. I tell everyone I know in the industry to take your classes. Empowering practitioners to be more effective and successful is the most important work in our industry at this time. Robert did a great job, and might just be your most important speaker at this time, in my opinion. We all need these acupuncture businesses to thrive, and we need clinics and people we can model. Peace." D.W.

With over 30 years of practice and experience, such as treating the presidents of Cuba and Italy, Li-Chun Huang brings to you her irreplaceable expertise in using the ear to diagnose, treat, and prevent disorders. She will discuss treatment of pain, anti-aging and weight loss therapy, smoking cessation and drug addiction treatment. Closing the day, Dr. Huang demonstrates the effectiveness of her auricular techniques with volunteers from the class.

Upon completion of this course, practitioners will:

- Incorporate auricular diagnosis and treatment as a new method in their practice
- Perform a comprehensive clinical examination using auricular diagnosis
- Apply auricular acupuncture to treat most commonly seen disorders
