Master Jimmy Wei-Yen Chang is a Doctor of Oriental Medicine trained in Taiwan and a licensed acupuncturist in California and New York. He has over 25 years of concentrated clinical experience, applying his expertise in differential diagnosis and herbal prescription. Master Chang is the author of the pulse diagnosis manual, Puls synergy, and he currently pursues his specialties in private practice in Hacienda Heights, California. He is widely recognized for his skills in correlating definitive pulse diagnoses with herbal prescription.

Dr. Chang's Internship Program

If you are interested in Dr. Chang's internship program, the internship fee is $250 per day. Internship application: contact Mimi @ 626-820-8858.

Case Studies: Live Discussion on Pulse Diagnosis and Herbal Prescriptions

Patients are not cookie cut to perfectly fit one particular formula per disease pattern. Based on individual differences of medical history, personal constitution, and mix of signs and symptoms, the diagnosis and treatment for each patient is specific.

In this class, Master Wei-Yen Chang leads you to learn, from textbook to real world, the pulse diagnosis and herbal prescription with real clinical cases. 10 to 15 actual patients attend this class, and Master Chang starts the lecture by taking these patients' pulses. He discusses in detail the pulses he feels on each patient's cun, guan, and chi, explains the significance of each pulse, and elaborates on the herbal formulas he uses to treat the conditions discovered.

Hands-On Pulse Taking Workshop

Pulse diagnosis cannot be learned just by listening, you must 'get your fingers on the pulses.' And what better way to do that than through 'speed-dating pulse taking'!

Come join us in this workshop where you can learn hands-on from the Master of Pulse Diagnosis. As Master Chang takes everyone's pulses, he will explain what he is feeling, what the pulses indicate, and which formulas to use. Once he is finished, you will then have your chance to take each other's pulses and feel for the different pulses that Master Chang describes in his Puls synergy Made Easy series.

As a bonus, Master Chang will also take you through his various diagnostic techniques, including inspection of color, feel of temperature, and blood pressure with heart rate, that he incorporates with pulse diagnosis.

Note: To provide optimal learning conditions, the Hands-on Pulse Taking Workshops are limited to 30 people. We regret that the high cost of offering these courses prohibits us from providing gift certificates for herbal purchases; but, we trust that the high quality of the learning experience will be a reward in itself.
